| Identify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value exceeding $1,000 at the end of the reporting year, (b) each income-producing asset with an income which generated more than $200 in "unearned" income during the year. For rental property or land, provide an address. Provide the name of any individual who has the right to direct IRA (i.e., one who has the power to select the specific investments), provide information on each asset in the account that exceeds the reporting threshold. If the asset is a qualified pension plan, IRA or retirement plan that is not self-directed, name the institution holding the account and provide its value at the end of the reporting year. If the asset is an account that is not publicly traded, provide Block A name and address of the business and its geographic location. For additional information, see the instruction booklet for the reporting year. |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  | at close of reporting year. Enclosed with your December statement is FYI 2005, our annual resource with information about account and service fees, compensation you pay us and we pay our Financial Advisors, a summary of amendments to the Active Assets Account Client Agreement and Margin Agreement, and more. You can also access FYI 2006 online, at www.morganstanley.com/online.

If your investment objectives or financial situation has changed, or if you wish to impose any reasonable restrictions on the management of your account or reasonably modify existing restrictions, please call your Financial Advisor. For a copy of our Disclosure Document for Morgan Stanley DW, Inc., please send a written request to Morgan Stanley, Consulting Services Group, 2000 Westchester Blvd., 2nd Floor, Purchase, NY 10577.

Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition (in thousands of dollars):

At November 30, 2005, Morgan Stanley DW Inc. had net capital of $1,106,300, which exceeded the SEC's minimum requirement by $1,025,002. A copy of the Morgan Stanley DW Inc. Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at November 30, 2005 can be viewed online at the Morgan Stanley Web site (<http://www.morganstanley.com/online>) or by e-mail at shareholder@morganstanley\_dw\_inc.pdf, or may be mailed to you at no cost by calling toll free 1(866)278-4488, after Feb. 14, 2006.

Disclosure information of our execution and routing practices is also available to you. Quarterly reports that identify the top venues, as defined in the applicable SEC rule, where orders were routed and additional order-routing details are available on morganstanley.com and by request. You may request specific order-routing and execution information, including the identity of the marketplace where your orders were routed for execution, whether your orders were directed or non-directed and the time of the execution, if any. This information can be obtained by calling your Financial Advisor.

If you have a Margin Account, securities purchased on margin are the firm's collateral for the loan to you. If the securities in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan. As a result, the firm can take action - such as issue a margin call and/or sell securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the firm - in order to maintain the required level of equity in the account.

Margin involves a high degree of risk and market conditions can magnify any potential loss. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following: You can lose more funds than you deposited in the margin account. The firm can force the sale of securities or other assets in your account(s). Assets in your account(s) are other assets without contacting you, you are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call. The firm can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice. You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

If you have any questions or require more information, please contact your Financial Advisor.

RESEARCH RATINGS DEFINITIONS

Independent third party research providers or by Morgan Stanley. Research reports from such independent third party research providers are generally available on our website, as well as current and historical ratings for the providers. You are encouraged to review this and all other relevant information available regarding your investment. Different providers use different terms and systems to describe the recommendations in their research reports. For example, Morgan Stanley uses a relative rating system by which we rate securities as Overweight, Equal-weight or Underweight (see explanations within definitions section). In addition, Morgan Stanley utilizes a rating system using terms such as Buy, Hold and Sell. Morgan Stanley's research reports are intended to provide explanations of all ratings shown. The ratings assigned to each security and the explanations of the ratings are contained in the independent third party research providers have been furnished to us by such providers. In addition, since the research report contains more complete information concerning the analyst's views, investors should read the entire research report and not infer its contents from the rating alone.

All ratings shown on statements are as of the last business day of the month. All ratings shown on confirmations are as of the current business day.

Enclosed with your December statement is FYI 2006, our annual resource with information about account and service fees, compensation you pay us and we pay our Financial Advisors, a summary of amendments to the Active Assets Account Client Agreement and Margin Agreement, and more. You can also access FYI 2006 online, at www.morganstanley.com/online.

If your investment objectives or financial situation has changed, or if you wish to impose any reasonable restrictions on the management of your account or reasonably modify existing restrictions, please call your Financial Advisor. For a copy of our Disclosure Document for Morgan Stanley DW, Inc., please send a written request to Morgan Stanley, Consulting Services Group, 2000 Westchester Blvd., 2nd Floor, Purchase, NY 10577.

Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition (in thousands of dollars):
At December 30, 2005, Morgan Stanley DW, Inc. had net capital of $1,106,300, which exceeded the SEC's minimum requirement by $1,025,002. Morgan Stanley DW, Inc. is a member of the Financial Conditions of Financial Conditions of November 30, 2005 can be viewed online at the Morgan Stanley Web site http://www.morganstanley.com/bullfinshareholder/morganstanley\_dw\_inc.pdf, or may be mailed to you at no cost by calling toll free (866)279-4498, after Feb. 14, 2006.

Disclosure information of our execution and routing practices is also available to you. Quarterly reports that identify the top venues, as defined in the applicable SEC rule, where orders were routed and additional order-routing details are available on morganstanley.com and by request. You may request specific order-routing and execution information, including the identity of the marketplace where your orders were routed for execution, whether your orders were directed or not-directed and the time of the execution, if any. This information can be obtained by calling your Financial Advisor.

If you have a Margin Account, securities purchased on margin are the firm's collateral for the loan to you. If the securities in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan. As a result, the firm can take action - such as issue a margin call and/or sell securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the firm - in order to maintain the required level of equity in the account.

Margin involves a high degree of risk and market conditions can magnify any potential loss. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following: you can lose more than you deposited in the margin account; the firm has the right to liquidate your securities without notice; you are not entitled to choose which securities are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call. The firm can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice. You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

If you have any questions or require more information, please contact your Financial Advisor.

RESEARCH RATINGS DEFINITIONS

Independent third party research providers or by Morgan Stanley. Research reports from such independent third party research providers are generally available on our website, as well as current and historical ratings for the providers. You are urged to review this and all other relevant information available regarding your investment. Different providers use different terms and systems to describe the recommendations in their research reports. For example, Morgan Stanley uses a relative rating system including terms such as Overweight, Equal-weight or Underweight (see explanations within definitions section). In addition, Morgan Stanley applies an industry rating system which compares the analyst's view of the industry to the broader market benchmark. A rating system using terms such as buy, hold and sell may not be equivalent to our rating system. Investors should carefully read the independent third party research reports. The ratings assigned to each security and the explanations for the ratings used by the independent third party research providers are shown to us by such providers. In addition, since the research report contains more complete information concerning the analyst's view, investors should read the entire research report and not infer its contents from the rating alone.

All ratings shown on statements are as of the last business day of the month. All ratings shown on confirmations are as of the current business day.

If you have a Margin Account, securities purchased on margin are the firm's collateral for the loan to you. If the securities in your account decline in value so that the value of the collateral supporting your loan, as a result, the firm cannot maintain the loan as issued, a margin call and/or securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the firm - in order to maintain the required level of equity in the account.

Margin involves a high degree of risk and market conditions can magnify any potential loss. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following: You can lose more funds than you deposit in the margin account. The firm can force the sale of securities or other assets in your account(s). The firm can sell your securities or other assets without contacting you. You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in your account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call. The firm can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice. You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

If you have any questions or require more information, please contact your Financial Advisor.

RESEARCH RATINGS DEFINITIONS

Independent third party research providers or by Morgan Stanley. Research reports from such independent third party research providers are generally available on our website, as well as current and historical ratings for the providers. You are encouraged to review this and all other relevant information available regarding your investment. Different providers use different terms and systems to describe the recommendations in their research reports. For example, Morgan Stanley uses a relative rating system including terms such as Overweight, Equal-weight or Underweight (see explanations within definitions section). In addition, Morgan Stanley applies an industry rating system which compares the analyst's view of the industry to the broader market benchmark. A rating system using terms such as buy, hold and sell may not be equivalent to our rating system. Investors should carefully read the research reports and ratings shown. The ratings assigned to each security and the explanations of the ratings are only for informational purposes and do not constitute an offer or recommendation. In addition, Morgan Stanley's research reports contain more complete information concerning the analyst's views. Investors should read the entire research report and not infer its contents from the rating alone.

All ratings shown on statements are as of the last business day of the month. All ratings shown on confires are as of the current business day.

| Identify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value exceeding $1,000 at the end of the reporting period, and (b) any other asset or source of income which generated more than $200 in "unearned" income during the year. For rental property or land, provide an address. Provide full names of any mutual funds. For a self-directed IRA (i.e., one where you have the power to select the specific investments) provide information on each asset in the account that exceeds the reporting threshold and the income earned for the account. Do not list a retirement plan that is not self-directed; name the plan and the investment. Do not include the value of the asset if it is included only because it is generated income. For an active business that is not publicly traded, in Block A state the nature of the business and its geographic location. For additional information, see instruction booklet for the reporting year. Exclude: Your personal residence(s) (unless there is rental income); any debt owed to you by your spouse, or by you or your spouse's child, parent, or sibling; any deposits totaling $5,000 or less in personal savings accounts; any financial interest in or income derived from U.S. Government retirement programs. If you so choose, you may indicate that an asset or income source is that of your spouse (SP) or dependent child (DC) or is jointly held (JT), in the optional column on the far left. |                                                        | at close of reporting year. If you use a valuation method other than fair market value, please specify the method used. If an asset is included only because it is generated income, the value should be "None." |  | If you choose one of the listed categories, specify the type of income by writing a brief description in this block. (For example: Partnership Income or Farm Income) |  | For retirement plans or accounts that do not allow you to choose specific investments, you may write "NA" for income. For all other assets, indicate the category of income by checking the appropriate box below. | BLOCK AAsset and/or Income SourceIdentify (a) each asset held for investment or production of income with a fair market value exceeding $1,000 at the end of the reporting period, and (b) any other asset or source of income which generated more than $200 in "unearned" income during the year. For rental property or land, provide an address. Provide full names of any mutual funds. For a self-directed IRA (i.e., one where you have the power to select the specific investments) provide information on each asset in the account that exceeds the reporting threshold and the income earned for the account. For an IRA or retirement plan that is not self-directed, name the institution, the plan or fund, and the address of the institution and the reporting period. For an active business that is not publicly traded, in Block A state the nature of the business and its geographic location. For additional information, see instruction booklet for the reporting year.Exclude: Your personal residence(s) (unless there is rental income); any debt owed to you by your spouse, or by your or your spouse's child, parent, or sibling; any deposits totaling $5,000 or less in personal savings accounts; any financial interest in or income derived from U.S. Government retirement programs.If you so choose, you may indicate that an asset or income source is that of your spouse (SP) or dependent child (DC) or is jointly held (JT), in the optional column on the far left. | BLOCK BYear-End Value of Assetat close of reporting year. If you use a valuation method other than fair market value, please specify the method used. If it is included only because it is generated income, the value should be "None." | BLOCK CType of IncomeIf other than one of the listed categories, specify the type of income by writing a brief description in this block. (For example: Partnership Income or Farm Income) | BLOCK DAmount of IncomeFor retirement plans or accounts that do not allow you to choose specific investments, you may write "NA" for income. For all other assets, indicate the category of income by checking the appropriate box below. Dividends, even if reinvested, should be listed as income. | BLOCK ETransactionIndicate if asset was purchased (P), sold (S), or exchanged (E) in reporting year. |

Asset portfolio

When reliable, price, income and current value may be approximate and thus gains/losses may not be accurately reflected. An asterisk (*) indicates the calculation of unrealized gains/losses based upon a US$ Financial Expense equivalent to cost basis. The number "1" indicates cost basis information has been provided by a source other than US$ Financial Services. See the back of the first page for additional information. Gains/losses are not calculated for zero coupon investments. "Spending adjustments" or "WY" indicates cost basis has not yet been allocated as a result of a spin-off or taxable exchange.
